

Joint Seminar on Multi-Inter-Trans disciplinary in Environmental Science and Sustainable Development

Venue: Inamori Memorial Building 3F, Medium size room

Date: February 26th, 2019

Organized by: School of Environmental Science, University of Indonesia (SILUI), Graduate School of Asian and African Area Studies (ASAFAS), Graduate School of Global Environmental Studies (GES), Center for Southeast Asian Studies (CSEAS), Kyoto University

9:00–9:10	Prof. Yoko Hayami (CSEAS)	Welcome remarks–Opening
9:10–9:30	Dr. Hayati Sari Hasibuan (SILUI)	Multi-disciplinary Research on School of Environmental Science Universitas Indonesia, and contribution to the Global and Local
9:30–9:50	Dr. Akihisa Mori (GES)	Multi-disciplinary Research on Graduate School of Global Environmental Science Studies, with special focus on the researches in Indonesia
9:50–10:00	Coffee break
10:00–10:20	Sese Ma (Weijie Zhao) (ASAFAS)	Survivals in a Human-dominant Landscape: Towards a Multi-Species Sustainable Society
10:20–10:40	Dr. Denny Rusadi (SILUI)	Urban Forests for sustainable urban development
10:40–11:00	Dheny Trie Wahyu Sampurno (ASAFAS)	Spatial Landscape Dynamic Analysis of Tropical Peat Ecosystem Functions Zonation Area Study: Tebing Tinggi Island, Riau, Indonesia
11:00–11:20	Makibi Nakano (ASAFAS)	Indigenous fishing knowledge of Sama people in Central Sulawesi: Focusing on technologies of space and time use

11:20-11:40	Mai Sumita (GES)	The consumer needs and the retailers' marketing strategies of the Sustainable Agricultural Products in Japan
11:40-12:00	Dr. Ellyna Chaerani (SILUI)	Sustainability of Civet (Paradoxurus haemaphroditus) Coffee Management in Indonesia
12:00-13:00	Lunch
13:00-13:20	Sanae Ito (ASAFAS)	The Emergence of Hāmro Space: A Study of Waste Management Practices in Kathmandu Valley, Nepal
13:20-13:40	Lydia Simanjuntak (SILUI)	Strategy of Waste Management as a Minimization of Industrial Waste
13:40-14:00	Dr. Januar Purnama (SILUI)	The Green Technology of Used Oil Recycle by Extraction Method Using Activated Bleaching Earth
14:00-14:20	Genta Kuno (ASAFAS)	Reactivation of Repressive Role of Community in Jakarta? Rises of Forum RT/RW SeDKI Jakarta and Forum Kewaspadaan Dini Masyarakat (FKDM)
14:20-14:40	Retno Setiowati (SILUI)	Social Network Analysis on Formulating Master-Plan of GOS, case of Jakarta
14:40-14:50	Coffee break
14:50-15:10	Amith Phetsada (ASAFAS)	Hydropower Development and Its Impact on Local Communities in Laos: A Case Study of HatKhip Village Relating to Nam Ou 2 Hydropower Project
15:10-15:30	Dr. Ahyahudin Sodri (SILUI)	Toward Cooperation in Publication: Introducing Journal of Environmental Science and Sustainable Development
15:30-15:40	Dr. Emil Budianto (SILUI)	Closing